

KBOO Radio Policy	Major Programming Changes	Date: 9/26/2022
POLICY #I.C.7 (formerly #22)		Approved by: KBOO Board of Directors

The Program Advisory Committee (PAC) will advise Program Staff on major programming changes.

A. Major programming changes are defined as:

1. Format of a single program
2. Removal of a single program for reasons not defined in the On-Air Contract
3. Changes to the program schedule that affect more than one program.

B. Process for A1: Requesting a Format Change

1. The programmer informs Program Staff that they wish to change their program's format
2. The programmer submits a new program application
3. Program Staff informs the PAC of the new proposal
4. PAC is given a reasonable amount of time to provide input (ideally, 2 weeks)
5. The Program Staff returns the feedback and decision to the programmer
6. If the proposed program is approved but is inappropriate for the given time slot, Program Staff will find a more suitable time slot for the proposed program, if one is available

C. Appeals:

A programmer may appeal major programming changes through policy #III.A, Program Advisory Committee Responsibilities, section G.
